INDIRA AND THE GIRLS

The relationship between the girls and Indira, the house manager, is good. As is generally the case in the youth-adult relationship, sometimes minor misunderstandings arise, which they try to resolve from time to time. Indira sometimes feels the burden of managing the 12 young students, partly because her task is certainly not easy. However, she is happy and together they work together so that problems find a shared solution.

thank you

THE GIRLS ARE HAPPY TO LIVE IN VIDYA HOME

Thanks to this wonderful opportunity, the girls can have all the support they need to continue their studies. Their parents, in fact, would not never been able to meet these important educational expenses.

FRIENDSHIP

Girls are friends and love each other. Sometimes it may happen that they split into little groups and problems arise. This is normal, and usually it is resolved within a few days or a week, but if it doesn't get resolved, the Namaste staff react.

Abhinaya

is from Tamil Nadu and is in the 1st year of the Diploma postgraduate degree in Fashion Designing Technology at Dream Zone schools of Creativity.

Indhuja
